

Projektname: Development of Regional Interdisciplinary Post-Graduate Energy and Environmental Law Studies
Akronym: REGENLAW
Projektnummer: 516911-Tempus-2011-DE-JPCR	Dauer: 3 Jahre - 15.10.2011 - 14.10.2014
Koordinierende Hochschule: Otto-von-Guericke Universität Magdeburg
Beteiligte Hochschulen:
Georgien	Technical University of Georgia Ilia State Universitya
Österreich	World University Service Austrian Committee
Schweden	Royal Institute of Technology
Spanien	Universitat de Girona
Ukraine	National Aerospace University "KhAI" National University "Yaroslav the Wise Law Academy of Ukraine" Melitopol State Pedagogical University Khmel'nitskiy National University
Projektbeschreibung: The wider objective is to enable Ukraine and Georgia to face the challenges of dealing with Energy and Environment policies in accordance with EU and international standards through capacity and institutional building measures. To reach the wider objective of the project an interdisciplinary master and doctoral degree program on Energy and Environmental Law for Ukrainian and Georgian universities will be introduced. Specific Objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To introduce an interdisciplinary Energy and Environmental Law programme for master students in UA and GE universities by September 2014; 2. To introduce an interdisciplinary Energy and Environmental Law programme for doctoral students in UA and GE universities by September 2014; 3. To provide the mechanism for intensive capacity building measures for UA and GE law tutors by September 2014; 4. To establish two consultancy bureaus in UA and GE on Energy and Environmental Law by September 2014.

Projektbeteiligte an der OVGU
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prof. Dr.-Ing. habil. Prof. E. h. Dr. h. c. mult. Michael Schenk - Dr. Tobias Reggelin - Dipl.-Wirtsch.-Ing. M.Sc. Til Hennies
Fakultät: FMB	Institut: ILM
Koordinator: Prof. Michael Schenk	Kontakt: michael.schenk@ovgu.de
Webseite: http://www.regenlaw.eu/	