

Call for Otto von Guericke Scholarship 2024 for Sponsoring an International Student

The state capital Magdeburg and OVGU Magdeburg allocate the Otto von Guericke Scholarship for the 22nd time in 2024.

The study-accompanying scholarship encompasses an endowment of the state capital Magdeburg in the amount of 6,000 Euros. With this scholarship, an international student (no PhD student) of OVGU shall be sponsored specifically for the academic year 2024/25.

All academics have a right of nomination. International students can also apply by themselves. Nominations and applications can be submitted to the International Office by 12 August 2024, with the following documents:

- Justification of application (outstanding academic achievements by the candidate, special activities and social commitment which justifies the allocation of the scholarship)
- Details about the candidate (field of study, major, academic year)
- Overview of academic achievements at the OVGU (certified by the Examination Office)
- CV in tabular form
- Proof of volunteer work
- In case of an application by oneself: letter of recommendation by a professor or lecturer.

Further details will be given by the International Office:

Ms. Eva Böhning, phone 67-58429, eva.boehning@ovgu.de, or

Dr. Uwe Genetzke, phone 67-58514/15, uwe.genetzke@ovgu.de.

Please check telephone numbers in the LSF as changes are pending.

Apply to: Otto-von-Guericke-Universität Magdeburg
Akademisches Auslandsamt/International Office
Frau Eva Böhning
PF 4120, 39016 Magdeburg
or Campus Welcome Center in building 01, after opening or Red mailbox next to building 09 (next to the information and security service)

Magdeburg, June 2024