

Call
for
Otto von Guericke Scholarship 2018
for Sponsoring an International Student

The state capital of Magdeburg and OVGU Magdeburg allocate the Otto von Guericke Scholarship for the 16th time in 2018.

The study-accompanying scholarship embraces an edowment of the state capital of Magdeburg in the amount of 6,000 Euros. With this scholarship, an international student (no PhD student) of OVGU shall be sponsored specifically for the academic year 2018/19.

All academics have a right of nomination. International students can also apply by themselves.

Nominations and applications can be submitted to the International Office by 13 August 2018, with the following documents:

- Justification of application (outstanding academic achievements by the candidate, special activities and social commitment which justifies the allocation of the scholarship),
- Details about the candidate (field of study, major, academic year),
- Overview of academic achievements to date (certified by the Examination Office),
- In case of an application by oneself: letter of recommendation by a professor or lecturer and a CV in tabular form,
- Proof of volunteering.

Further details will be given by the International Office:

Ms. Eva Böhning, phone 67-58429 (eva.boehning@ovgu.de) or

Dr. Uwe Genetzke, phone 67-58514/15 uwe.genetzke@ovgu.de).

Magdeburg, May 2018