

Vacancy Notice

The Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg (OVGU) is an internationally oriented and regionally networked university with a strong research profile.

The Faculty of Economics and Management of Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg in cooperation with the Halle Institute for Economic Research (IWH) – Member of the Leibniz Association seeks qualified candidates to fill two positions at the rank of

Assistant Professor (W1) in Financial Economics.

JEL Classification: G

We expect the candidate to have a strong interest in teaching and research in Financial Economics. Preferred will be candidates with a focus on

- the interaction between the financial system and the real economy
- the interaction between finance and labor

A quantitative research approach and experience with the latest empirical methods, as well as a desire to apply economic research to policy questions are desirable.

The Assistant Professorships serve to deepen the collaboration between the University and the Halle Institute for Economic Research (IWH). The IWH is one of the seven economic research institutes of the Leibniz Association in Germany (www.iwh-halle.de). The IWH focuses on research in finance, macroeconomics, and productivity and innovation. The two Assistant Professorships are intended to strengthen the joint research focus in Finance of the IWH and the Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg. They will join the IWH's Financial Markets Department or the new department on Laws, Regulations and Factor Markets at the IWH.

The requirements for both positions are: the completion of a PhD in Economics or Finance by summer of 2021 at the latest, the potential for successful publications in international journals, and ideally an existing network of international research collaborations. It is expected that the candidates will teach in the Faculty's Bachelor and Masters Programs. While knowledge of German is desirable, it is not a requirement for the position.

The employees are assigned the status of civil servants with limited tenure (Beamtenverhältnis auf Zeit). The contract will initially be limited to three years, and may be extended by a further three years given a positive evaluation.

Applications from disabled persons will be given priority in the case of equal suitability, ability and professional expertise. The Otto von Guericke University and the IWH aim to increase the proportion of women researchers within the university and specifically encourage women to apply.

The hiring committee will be available for information talks at the EEA Job Market Meeting as well as the ASSA Meetings.
